SCHOLARSHIPS:

merit-based scholarship is an award given to high performing students. It is based entirely on your merit in either academics, sports, leadership activity, community service, artistic, or other special interests rather than your need for financial aid.

NON GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIPS –

'NGO scholarships' are a broad category of scholarships that are being offered by various Non-Government Organizations in our country. Apart from the scholarships financed by the state and central government, there are several NGOs that are offering scholarships to provide financial means to deserving students, so that they can accomplish their educational dreams and ambitions. There are hundreds of students all over the country who have had to give up their higher education due to a lack of financial stability. In such a case, scholarships are nothing short of a blessing.
